

Pedro Rodríguez, awarded for his professional career

Meritxell Albertí, Ercros director of finance, picks up the prize on behalf of Pedro Rodriguez.

Pedro Rodríguez, Ercros' chief financial officer (CFO), has received the best «Professional career» award, in the XII edition of the «Financial excellence awards», hosted by the Spanish Association of Financial Executives. With this award the business association wanted to recognize «his career in the field of finance, which has led him to be a reference in this area and his career path in Ercros as CFO, with a great leadership and management capacity».

The «Financial excellence awards» are an initiative of the Spanish Association of Financial Executives, which, with the collaboration of American Express, annually recognize the most outstanding professionals and companies in the field of business administration and financial management at national level.

Pedro Rodríguez has a degree in Economic and Business Sciences from the University of Malaga, in the specialty of Business Administration and Management. In 2006, he joined Ercros as chief financial officer (CFO) and is a member of the Official Register of Account Auditors (Registro Oficial de Auditores de Cuentas - ROAC).
