Ercros joins as a sponsor of Toca'm 2025, a piano festival that will be held in Tortosa from 22 to 25 May. Joan Carles Galiana, head of industrial relations at the Ercros factory in Tortosa, was the company's representative at the presentation of the festival. An act that was attended by Jordi Jordán, mayor of Tortosa; Mar Lleixà, Councilor for Culture and the organizers of the festival, the pianists Manel Miró and Maria Lombarte.

The Toca'm piano festival is an innovative project that aims to bring music of all styles closer to citizens: from flamenco to pop, through classical music and jazz. Concerts by great pianists and professional musicians will be offered; but also students and amateur pianists will have the opportunity to share their passion for music.

The festival's stages will be set up in the streets, squares and emblematic spaces of the city. But there will also be performances in hospitals and nursing homes, on the Terres de l'Ebre university campus or in the premises of various social entities in Tortosa.

With this sponsorship, Ercros reaffirms its commitment to culture, the territory and the initiatives that enrich the social and artistic life of Tortosa.
