

Imma Comella, new director of Institutional Relations and Communication at Ercros

Ercros has appointed Imma Comella Pons as Director of Institutional Relations and Communication, replacing Teresa Conesa, who leaves the company after 30 years in the position, and whom the company thanks for her years of dedication and the work carried out at the head of this area.

Born in Barcelona in 1973, Imma Comella has a degree in Journalism from the Pompeu Fabra University and a degree in Geography and History from the University of Barcelona. She collaborated with Ercros externally since 2015, and in 2019 she joined its staff as a technician in the Institutional Relations and Communication department, a position she has held to date.

Previously, he developed his professional career in media outlets such as Televisió de Catalunya, Betevé and Com Ràdio, and later in the field of corporate communication, at IPR Comunicació.

Barcelona, January 13, 2026